UNDERSTANDING – 15 marks

B1. Read the following passage.

One day a hungry beggar came to a saint's house. He asked him for food and clothes. The saint gave him some food. But it was not enough for him. He had no proper clothes to give him. The saint said, "Sorry friend, I have no money to offer you, so you can buy what you want." He felt so sorry for that. He could not help him much. As it was extreme cold, the beggar was literally shivering badly with cold. He had very much need of warm clothes to survive.

The saint had no money with him. However he found a gold ring in his wife's drawer. He took it out and gave it to the beggar. Just after a while, his wife discovered that there was no ring in the drawer. She asked him its whereabouts. The saint told her what he had done with that ring. The saint's wife got angry. She told him to run after the beggar and get back the ring. It was because it was worth five thousand rupees. The saint immediately left the house to find him out. When he saw the beggar, he said, "MY friend, I have just come to know the ring I gave you is worth five thousand rupees. Don't sell it for less. Don't let anyone cheat you." The beggar sold it immediately and got everything what he needed.

B2. Read the following poem.

Two little kittens, one stormy night,
Began to quarrel, and then to fight;
One had a mouse, the other had none,
And that's the way the quarrel begun.

"I'll have that mouse," said the biggest cat;
"You'll have that mouse? We'll see about that!"
"I will have that mouse," said the eldest son;
"You shan't have the mouse," said the little one.

I told you before 'twas a stormy night
When these two little kittens began to fight;
The old woman held her sweeping broom,
And swept the two kittens right out of the room.

The ground was covered with frost and snow,
And the two little kittens had nowhere to go;
So they laid them down on the mat at the door,
While the old woman finished sweeping the floor.

Then they crept in, as quiet as mice,
All wet with the snow, and cold as ice,
For they found it was better, that stormy night,
To lie down and sleep than to quarrel and fight.
